

Home Entertainment not so long ago.

---

What did people do for entertainment at home before CD's, I Players and Netflix?

They listened to the radio or played music on the gramophone.

The quality of both was not up to today's standards, there were lots of crackles both on the radio broadcasts and the records played on the gramophone.

Pre WWII radio

1930's gramophone